SECRET SAUCE
Welcome,

In this document you will find all of the key points that Colette laid out in the 3rd video – The Secret Sauce Of Working With Oracle Cards.

It’s a great idea to refer to this document as often as you need until you get the hang of The Secret Sauce.
A Prayer

So the first thing we’re going to do is get you in a neutral state of mind, where you don’t get emotionally bogged down by the energy of your circumstances. The goal is to move yourself, your memories, your opinions and your personal stories aside so you can channel Spirit through the cards.

Let’s begin with a short prayer. This is the one that I’ve used for 30 years.

It goes like this ...

God [your version], make me a channel for thy peace.
Grant me this conversation for the highest good of all.
Relieve me of the bondage of self so that I may better do thy will.
Thy will be done through me.
Show me how to serve.
Let there only be light.
Amen. [or however you like to close our communication with Spirit ... ]
GETTING YOURSELF ZEROED

Meditation

Now, you can meditate first, use your own prayer, or find a way that brings you to a neutral state. I have a meditation here that I offer in all of my classes called Get on Your Bird.

It is so effective and will help you do that until you learn how to really get into a neutral state quickly without any aid. And FYI, I use it all the time.

Now comes the next ingredient.

Once you’re neutral, you get to the big reveal: using a three card reading to get the answer for any challenge in your life.

Imagine the cards are like mirrors and they’re going to show you everything that you may be able to see yourself but also all of the stuff that is hidden from your naked eye, residing in the invisible.

For example, when you look at yourself in the mirror and you see you and the objects around you - but you may not see the energy that connects all of the dots. But when you use cards - you’ll see the invisible threads that hold everything together, keep things moving, and making things happen.

So your first card is your situation card. The question you ask will be “what do I need to know about this situation for my highest good”. Then you read the card. It could be up right or reverse.

The first card you pick is like a mirror that’s going to show you the situation that you’re in and the dominant energy that has created it. It will tell you the truth about it. It may tell you something surprising or it might likely tell you what you already know.
The second card is your action card. This will tell you what the next right action should be to be coherent with what is the highest good. Because that’s always what you’re looking for.

That card is now going to tell you what you need to do to change your mind. Maybe it’s a physical action. You won’t know until you choose the card. Maybe it’s asking you to solve something from the past in order for you to move into your intended result.

Now the last card is the possible outcome, or result card. This is where the situation will evolve.

Remember that Oracle Cards tell you the evolution of events. They never give you a final destination because there is no such thing as a final destination. Life is like a river that continuously flows and evolves and changes shape.

So Oracle Cards are really snapshots of opportunities in life experience that can give you really, really good information about what you need to do, how you need to think, how you need to feel, and how you need to heal in order for you to get into alignment with the manifestation of your intentions.
The Secret Sauce

That’s pretty cool, because the cards don’t lie. You’ll always be pointed in the right direction - even if you don’t like where it’s telling you to go.

Spirit is chatty - the Universe is dying to talk to you. But for a clear conversation, you need to get into a neutral space and be willing to listen. And most of all, and the fun part - it’s like a puzzle. Sometimes you have to sit with the cards, do a little soul searching, and one by one the pieces drop into place.

And guess what? You can’t really manipulate an answer to go your way. You can try - but in hindsight you’ll always see they told you the truth.

And this is why I love Oracle Cards. And if you get really good at it, it’s amazing how every aspect of your life just begins to take on the magic of infinite potential. And it makes things look hopeful and manageable.

I know I covered a lot today, and throughout this entire workshop but I really wanted to get you inspired. Did it work? And I can tell you this - this recipe works.

It’s been proven over and over by my students - thousands of them - and my clients from all over the world. Look at me, I’m standing here today living the life I always knew was waiting for me - because I learned how to listen.
I learned how to unlock the magic within me, and partner with the magic that’s been waiting for me to find it. Just like it’s waiting for you.

So let me ask you this, are cards fun? Are cards enlightening? Did you learn things about yourself and other people using them? Do you see how you can find the magic and meaning in your life using Oracle Cards? Do you see how you can find happiness, using Oracle Cards? I don’t care who you are in this life - making good choices improves your life.

So what kind of choices do you need help with? If you continue to use the cards, and build on every right action, how would you be moved to make real leaps of faith in your life? How would your relationship to Spirit improve? Wouldn’t you be inspired?
